You have seen this advertisement in an English-language newspaper.

International Student Fair Fair requires staff

The International Student Fair helps people choose the right college or university, and we are looking for assistants for this year's Fair. Duties will include giving directions and offering advice.

- Do you like helping people?
- Do you have experience of choosing a place of study?
- Are you willing to work evenings?

If so, apply to the organiser, Ms Evie Ross, saying why you think you are suitable for the job.

Write your letter of application in 120 words in an appropriate style.

Dear, Ms. Evie Ross,

PRACTICE TEST 3

You should spend about 20 minutes on this task.

You are helping to organize a visit to an English Language Academy in London. You have received a letter from James Smith, the director of the Academy. Read part of the letter below.

> I am very glad to see that you are coming to our academy in June. I am sure you will all have a very enjoyable time and that you will learn a lot of English. You can either stay all together in a youth hostel, or individually with local families. Please tell me which you would prefer. Tell me something about your group so that I can organize interesting spare time activities. What sort of things do they like doing? Please ask if you need any further information.
>
> Yours sincerely,
>
> James Smith

Write a letter responding to Mr. Smith. You should write at least 120 words. You are not allowed to include your name.

B. INFORMAL LETTERS/ EMAILS

Practice Test 1

You should spend about 20 minutes on this task.

This is part of an email from an English friend, Alice.

> I'm lucky because I've got really good friends – especially those I've known since I was a kid. I don't know what I'd do without them! So tell me, how important are friends to you? Who's your best friend and what do you like about him or her?
>
> Looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Write an email responding to Alice.

You should write at least 120 words. You are not allowed to include your name.

Practice Test 3

You should spend about 20 minutes on this task.

Your friend, Kate, has sent you an email asking you to help her organize a special surprise birthday party for her brother Simon. Read part of Kate's email below.

We must make sure that Simon doesn't know we are planning this surprise. I'm not sure how many people to invite but our house is definitely too small.

Do you think we should book the Rex hotel for the evening and have the party there? You know that Simon is very keen on music so we could hire a live band. I've also been wondering what we could buy as a present. What do you think?

Could you come the day before the party to help with preparations? There's a lot to plan, so I'd really like your help. Can you suggest something else that will really make the party special?

All for now, best wishes,

Susan
